

Diversity and the Future of the Research Library

Courtney L. Young | ALA President | May 11, 2015

Diversity
Career Development
Engagement and Outreach

Advocacy
Information Policy
Professional and Leadership Development

American Library Association's Mission:

“To provide leadership for the development, promotion, and improvement of library and information services and the profession of librarianship in order to enhance learning and ensure access to information for all.”

<http://www.ala.org/aboutala/missionpriorities>

“Provide user-centric, high quality resources and services to meet the exponentially growing recreational & knowledge needs of the globally networked current, potential, and future diverse community user in a conducive environment.”

- Alka Bhatnagar, Regional Information Resource Officer
U.S. Department of State

LIBRARY

A large, illuminated sign spelling "LIBRARY" in white, block letters is mounted on a teal-colored building facade. The sign is lit up, and the letters are mounted on a dark track with small spotlights. The building's facade is made of large, rectangular panels. The sky is a clear, dark blue.

Courtney L. Young

President, American Library Association

Head Librarian

Penn State Greater Allegheny

cly11@psu.edu

@librarycourtney

