Grading Plan of Fore Court
COLLECTION: Estate Archives
DATE: 29 August 1917
CLASSIFICATION: Plans
The plan, created by Thomas Sears (1880-1966), shows the grading plan for the forecourt at Reynolds House.

After the initial phase of site development in 1912, Katherine Reynolds selected Thomas W. Sears of Philadelphia to be the principal landscape architect for Reynolds. Sears' first plans for Reynolds' gardens and landscaping date from 1915. The association of Sears and Reynolds would continue into the 1930s when Mary Reynolds Babcock hired him to revolve the landscape.
