Kahoot! Sample Questions

Note: Correct answers are marked in blue

Environmental Science and Policy (ENSP) class

1. Which of these websites is the least reliable?
   A. "www.wikipedia.org"
   B. "www.epa.gov"
   C. "www.jhu.edu"
   D. "scholar.google.com"

2. Which of these is a key factor in assuring a website's credibility?
   A. "Authored by expert who has a TV show"
   B. "The website has advertisements"
   C. "Information was difficult to find"
   D. "The website was updated recently"

3. Which website is a better source to cite when writing a paper on safety of drinking water?
   A. "http://www.idph.state.il.us/radium.htm"
   B. "https://www.ewg.org/radioactive-water"

4. Why should you research the website's publisher?
   A. "Check for bias"
   B. "Determine the author's reputation"
   C. "Check for spelling and grammar"
   D. "Determine the intended audience"

5. What question should you ask to determine the currency of a source?
   A. "Are there advertisements on the website?"
   B. "Who is the publisher or sponsor?"
   C. "Is the information biased?"
   D. "How recent is the information?"

6. What question should you ask to determine the reliability of the source?

   A. "When was the source last updated?"
   B. "Who is the intended audience?"
   C. "Does the author provide references or sources for data?"
   D. "Does the author have a vested interest in the topic?"

7. What question should you ask to determine the authority of the source?
   A. "Is this fact or opinion?"
   B. "Is the content balanced?"
   C. "Who authored this information?"
   D. "Is it current enough for your topic?"

8. What question should you ask to determine the Purpose/Point of View of a source?
   A. "What is the author's reputation or expertise?"
   B. "Is this fact or opinion?"
   C. "How recently was the source updated?"
   D. "What is the site domain?"

9. What is the URL domain for 'Global temperatures plunge in April – "the pause" returns'?
   A. ".com"
   B. ".gov"
   C. ".edu"
   D. ".org"

10. What is the purpose or intent of 'Global temperatures plunge in April – "the pause" returns'?
    A. "Persuade readers to adopt the publisher's point-of-view"
    B. "To provide science-based research on climate"

11. True or False: Anthony Watts is the author of 'Global temperatures plunge in April – "the pause" returns'
    A. "True"
    B. "False"

12. What are the author's credentials?
    A. "Climate expert"
    B. "Not provided"
    C. "Retired weatherperson"

13. True or False: The citations in the bibliography are accurate and reliable
    A. "True"
    B. "False"

14. When was 'Global temperatures plunge in April – "the pause" returns' last updated?
    A. "May 1, 2017"
    B. "Cannot locate date"

15. True or False: 'Global temperatures plunge in April – "the pause" returns' is a credible source.
    A. "True"
    B. "False"

16. What is URL domain for www.recreation.gov?
    A. ".gov"
    B. ".edu"
    C. ".com"
    D. ".org"

17. What is the purpose or intent of the webpage recreation.gov?
    A. "Provide information on outdoor recreation in the U.S."
    B. "Promote businesses that cater to recreational tourists"

18. Who manages the website recreation.gov?
    A. "U.S. Department of the Interior"
    B. "12 partnering Federal agencies"

19. When was the webpage recreation.gov last updated?
    A. "2014"
    B. "Cannot find the information"
    C. "2018"

20. True or False: Recreation.gov is not a credible source
    A. "True"
    B. "False"

Public Health class

1. What is the childhood obesity rate in Prince George's County Maryland?
    A. "Regular Question"
    B. "Research Question"

2. How does childhood obesity correlate with academic performance in elementary school children?
    A. "Regular Question"
    B. "Research Question"

3. Which Boolean operator is best used between synonyms?
    A. "AND"
    B. "OR"

4. Which Boolean operator is best used between different key concepts?
    A. "AND"
    B. "OR"

5. In which type of literature would you expect to find a reference list and an abstract?
    A. "scholarly literature"
    B. "popular literature"

6. Which type of literature is written by/for experts in a given field?
    A. "scholarly literature"
    B. "popular literature"

7. Which of these is a good key term to use when searching for an intervention study?
    A. "randomized controlled trial"
    B. "data correlation"
    C. "literature review"
    D. "data analysis"

8. Identify the best set of main concepts needed to investigate this question: "How does advertising influence the incidence of eating disorders in female college students?"
   A. Eating disorders, advertising
   B. Eating disorders, advertising, female college students
   C. Eating disorders, influence, female college students
   D. Eating disorders, female college students

9. Which of these is a good comprehensive library database for searching for scholarly articles?
   A. EBSCOhost
   B. Academic search Complete
   C. Google
   D. The American Journal of Public Health

APA style citation questions

1. What Does APA stand for?
   A. "Atlanta Phoenix Association"
   B. "American Psychological Association"
   C. "America's Physics Association"

2. In APA style, how is the Reference list generally arranged?
   A. "Alphabetically, by the title of the work"
   B. "Alphabetically, by author's last name"
   C. "Alphabetically, by author's first name"
   D. "By publication year"

3. Each source listed in the Reference list must be cited in text.
   A. True
   B. False

4. In APA style, the first name of the author in a Reference list is...
   A. "spelled out"
   B. "not spelled out"

5. In APA, what is the correct formatting of the article title?
   A. "Addressing refugee health through policies: a case study"
   B. "Addressing refugee health through policies: A case study"
   C. "Addressing Refugee Health Through Policies: A Case Study"

6. In APA, all major words in journal titles must be capitalized.
   A. True
   B. False

7. In APA, all major words in journal titles must be capitalized.
   A. "Bolded"
   B. "Italicized"