From the Trenches

Cross-Campus Digital History Collaboration

Gettysburg College
Amy Lucadamo ‘00, Panel Chair
Ian Isherwood ‘00, R.C. Miessler, Jenna Fleming ‘16, Meghan O’Donnell ‘18

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
#TeamPeirs

Dr. Ian Isherwood ‘00
Visiting Assistant Professor
Amy Lucadamo ‘00
College Archivist
R.C. Miessler
Systems Librarian

Jenna Fleming ‘16 (2014-2016)
Kevin Lavery ‘16 (2014-2016)
Melanie Fernandes ‘17 (2016-2017)
Jesse Campana ‘18 (2018)

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
The First World War Letters of H.J.C. Peirs

- Around 300 letters, documents, artifacts, maps, and photographs from a British officer of the BEF
- All currently on loan to Special Collections and College Archives Gettysburg College
- Family requested that everything be digitized and made freely available without copyright restrictions
- The Peirs Project = blog + social media
- Engaging with WWI scholars, enthusiasts, genealogists, & students

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Hugh John Chevallier “Jack” Peirs

Photos of Jack and his pram, his sisters, and nieces appear courtesy of Will Hall.

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Collaboration

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Vision and Beginnings

- Classroom connection with student
- Traditional research paper
- Family support for new initiative
- Assembling a “dream team”
- No idea what we were doing
  #workedout

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
DH @ Gettysburg College

- Digital Humanities not generally a part of institutional culture
- “Mesh network” model for digital projects
- Collaboration built into the Peirs project from the beginning

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Getting Started

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
“My Dear Mother …”

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
The First World War Letters of H.J.C. Peirs

a digital history

About

Welcome to the First World War Letters of H.J.C. Peirs, a digital history project at Gettysburg College.

Jack Peirs was a British officer in the 8th Battalion, the Queen's Royal West Surrey Regiment. For three years, Peirs served on the western front, fighting in every major campaign waged by the British Army from 1915 to 1918. During the war, Peirs rose in rank from Lieutenant to Lieutenant-Colonel and he was decorated with Distinguished Service Order (two bars) and named a Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George at the King's Birthday Honours in 1919.

Jack Peirs saw hard service and he was a prolific correspondent. He wrote home weekly to members of his family of his experiences at the front. On the hundredth anniversary of the day in which Peirs composed each letter home, we will release his words here for you to read.

Please feel free to engage with the site. Use these letters in your research (properly attributed) and in your classroom. Bookmark our page, share our posts on social media, and follow H.J.C. Peirs on Twitter and Instagram (@jpeirs) and like our Facebook page.

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Mapping the Great War (Then)
Mapping the Great War (Now)
Mapping the Great War (Now)

LE VERGUIER - 21-22 MARCH

Terrible, Bombardment of positions with regular and gas shells commenced at 6:30 AM. The Headquarters is moved again to a section line on the northern border of Le Verguier.

The Forests were on the buried cable route, but by 7 AM all telephone communications with the forward companies was lost.

At 10:30 AM Companies A and C were cut off from the enemy. A Company’s Lance Corporal John Sayer showed incredible resistance for which he later received the Victoria Cross.

At 3 PM Peters arrived to take over command and attacks on the village began. Throughout the night Peters leads counterattacks.

On the morning of the 22, only Fort Graescheid and the Battalion Headquarters remain and Peters ordered a retreat, against his orders to hold the town.

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Student Roles

- Starting with a student
- Working as a library intern
- Guidance vs. freedom
- Collaboration from the start

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Moving Forward

- Developing our goals
- Actually working “from the trenches”
- Making the project better
- Research is truly a process
Controlling the Vocabulary

This entry was posted in Letters and tagged bombing, Christmas, front, Gladys, Katie Paull, letter to mother, post, weapons on May 31, 2016 by Jenna Fleming. Edit

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
New Territory

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Simply A1

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Field Research & Archival Research (2016)

- Internal grant funded
- France, Belgium, & England
- 100th anniversary of the beginning of the Battle of the Somme
- Visited battlefields, archives, cemeteries, & monuments
- Peirs-specific sites in/near London

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Field Research & Archival Research (2018)

- Crowdfunded
- France & Belgium
- 100th anniversary of the defense of the town of Le Vergyier (German Spring Offensive)
- Live broadcasts to classes in Gettysburg & on Facebook Live
- Connected with local people

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Back in the Trenches

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
#TeamPeirs Reflections and Evolution

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs
Thank You!

http://jackpeirs.org // jack@jackpeirs.org // @jackpeirs dove to all. Jack.

#maracspring18 #s24 // #teampeirs @jackpeirs