We Won't Move: Documenting Contemporary Tenant Organizing

Equality for Flatbush(E4F)
POLICE VIOLENCE &
HARRASSMENT Meeting Co-sponsored by
The East Flatbush Cop Watch Team
Tuesday, November 18th 5:30pm -7:30pm
The Flatbush Public Library
22 Linden Blvd

'Equality for Flatbush' is a new people of color-led grassroots organization that does anti-police repression, affordable housing and anti-gentrification organizing in Flatbush and East Flatbush, Brooklyn. We seek to organize communities for social change and justice through street outreach, social campaigns, political advocacy and direct action.

We want to hear from YOU about what's happening with the NYPD on your block - Tired of the dealing with Traffic Checkpoints, Being Stop and Frisked or Written Summons - Let's Strategize on ways to protect ourselves and hold the NYPD accountable to our core - Find out about E4F's Flatbush Dollar Van and Cab Driver Solidarity Campaigns, Checkpoint Committee and other anti-police repression work - Hear from East Flatbush Cop Watch Team and find about your rights when dealing with - Learn how to continue to demand justice for the families of Shantel Davis, Kimani Gray, Kyam L. who have lost their loved ones to police brutality

To RSVP, Get Involved or to Report Police Harassment Contact E4F - flatbushequality or call/text (646) 820-6039

Themes we've noticed working with community:

- Privacy & trauma concerns
- Winning trust, sustaining relationships
- What is important to collect?
- Convincing donors and others of the value of contemporary materials to future researchers
- Tech obstacles and tradeoffs (where we compromise sophistication to boost participation)
