Hi Kelly,

That sounds great, thank you for the update!

One other thing I wanted to ask you was for permission to post your group's final project on the Digital Repository at the University of Maryland (DRUM). If you are able to confirm that we are allowed to post your group's deliverable on DRUM (when you're finished), we will be able to post it online. Let me know if you have any questions about DRUM, but a simple 'yes' would work if you are willing to give your permission. Thanks again!
