Dear Dr. Gilligan:

This letter will confirm our e-mail and in-person discussions regarding using co-authored work in my doctoral dissertation entitled "Early Childhood Nutritional Responses to Targeted Food Aid and Social Network Disruptions in Ugandan Internally Displaced Person's Camps."

I would like your permission to reprint in my dissertation excerpts from the following:

Adelman, Sarah; Daniel O. Gilligan and Kim Lehrer. 2008. "How Effective Are Food for Education Programs? A Critical Assessment of the Evidence from Developing Countries." IFPRI Food Policy Review, 9; Chapter 6.

And I would like to confirm use of our co-authored working paper, "Intrahousehold Redistribution of Targeted Transfer Benefits: Nutritional Spillovers from Food for Education Programs on Preschoolers."

The requested permission extends to any future revisions and editions of my dissertation, including non-exclusive world rights in all languages, and to the prospective publication of my dissertation by UMI. These rights will in no way restrict republication of the material in any other form by you or by others authorized by you.

If these arrangements meet with your approval, please sign this letter where indicated below and return it to me in the enclosed return envelope. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Sarah Wallace Adelman

PERMISSION GRANTED FOR THE
