Dear MARAC presenter,

We would like to invite you to contribute your presentation and/or handouts from the Roanoke MARAC conference to MARAC's digital archives, which are located in DRUM, the University of Maryland's digital repository. Following the conference, you will receive an invitation to submit your presentation through Dropbox. Please title your file with the session number and your last name. For example, S1-Caringola.

After uploaded to the Dropbox folder, you will be contacted with an email agreement outlining the terms of your submission, and your presentation will be deposited in DRUM.

The fine print:

- Deposit of works is completely optional. The deposit agreement asks for non-exclusive rights so authors will retain all copyrights to their work.
- Authors will receive a permanent URL for their work. This is an example of an individual DRUM record: <http://drum.lib.umd.edu/handle/1903/15068>
- We can accept PowerPoints and PDFs. PDFs are preferred.
- Authors can supply keywords and abstracts if they like. This is completely optional.
- The URL for DRUM: <http://drum.lib.umd.edu>
- The MARAC collection in DRUM: <http://drum.lib.umd.edu/handle/1903/12510>

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact us.

Best,

Liz Caringola (ecaringo@umd.edu)Jessica Johnson (jejohnson2@vcu.edu)

Hi Kira,

I'm am finally following up on this! Below is the agreement for DRUM. Please respond when you have a chance. Also, I checked the Roanoke folder and I did not see a presentation from you there. Can you please resend via email?

**

Thank you for contributing your presentation from the MARAC Fall 2015, Fall 2013, and Fall 2011 conferences for inclusion in the MARAC permanent repository at the University of Maryland. My apologies for the long delay in uploading this material.

Please read the DRUM license below, and reply to this email that you agree to the terms of the license.

By signing and submitting this agreement, I grant the University of Maryland a no cost, nonexclusive, right and license to include the scholarly material identified below in the Digital Repository at the University of Maryland ("DRUM") and, through DRUM, to reproduce, publicly display and distribute the material at no cost to users world-wide provided the University does not alter the content of the material. I understand that if I wish to publish the material with a third party that requires me to assign to it all my rights in the material, I may direct the University to remove the material from DRUM. In such an event, I understand that a bibliographic reference to the material will be retained in DRUM, but the material will be removed to a "dark archive" that is not publicly accessible. I represent that I am the sole or joint owner of the entire copyright in the material or, to the extent that I do not hold copyright in any part of the material, that I have written authority from the owner of copyright to grant this license to the University of Maryland. If the material is based on work that was sponsored or supported by an agency or entity other than the University of Maryland, I represent that I complied with any requirements the sponsor may have imposed on publication including a right of review or inclusion of an acknowledgement of its support.

This agreement will be interpreted and governed in accordance with applicable Federal law and the laws of the State of Maryland without reference to its conflict of laws rules.

Thank you,
Joanne

Hi Joanne!

Attached at the two presentations. They are labeled with the session number, session title, and conference. (My name doesn't appear in the conference program for 2011 since I was a replacement for a colleague). Thanks for helping out--I'm glad to put copies with the MARAC archives, too.

Best,
Kira

Hi Kira,

If you send me the two presentations via email I can get them added to the MARAC repository. Just let me know what session each presentation was for.

Thanks!

Hi Kira, thanks so much for submitting your Roanoke presentations!

Joanne, can you work with Kira to get her older MARAC presentations into DRUM, too?

Thanks!
Liz

Hi Liz,

I put both of my un-conference session presentations in the Dropbox a few minutes ago. Going back through my files, I realize I have two other MARAC presentations (from 2011 and 2013) that I've never sent in (you all made the process really easy this year!). Do you know who I can contact about submitting them? I have them in my institution's repository, but would like to see them with the MARAC one, too.

Thanks!
Kira

Dear MARAC presenter,

Last week you should have received a Dropbox invitation to submit your presentation and/or handouts from the Roanoke MARAC conference to MARAC's digital archives, which are located in DRUM (<http://drum.lib.umd.edu>), the University of Maryland's digital repository.

If you would like to contribute your presentation, please upload your file and name it using the session number and your last name (e.g., S1-Caringola). You will then receive a follow-up email with an agreement outlining the terms of your submission.

Hi Joanne,

Yes, I agree to the terms.

My presentations from Roanoke were pop-ups and I added notes later, so it's possible I didn't put them where I should have. Attached are the final versions with notes from the discussions for both pop-up session I led. If you need anything else, let me know!

Best,

Kira
